PROFILE

I am Hesam odin Astaraki, I love challenges and excitement. I have been studying polymer engineering at Hakim Sabzevari University since 2021 and graduated from this field in 2025. In the same year, I started studying for a master's degree in polymer engineering, processing orientation, at the University of Isfahan (I am currently studying). Since 2019, I started advanced programming and security and progressed in the field of website design. From 2021 to 2024, I was the admin and designer of the Webkids website.
